This agenda item proposes to designate the Board as the corporate body competent (i) to issue ordinary shares in the capital of the Company and grant rights to subscribe for ordinary shares in the capital of the Company at any time during a period of 18 months as of the date of this general meeting up to a maximum of 10% of the issued share capital of the Company, to be calculated against the amount of issued share capital as it will be at the date of this general meeting and in relation thereto (ii) to limit or exclude the statutory pre-emptive rights with regard to such (rights to subscribe for) shares.

11.Appointment of Deloitte Accountants B.V. as external auditor of the Company for the 2024 financial year (voting item)

This agenda item proposes to the general meeting of shareholders to appoint Deloitte Accountants B.V. as the external auditor of the Company for the 2024 financial year.

12.Appointment of Ernst & Young Accountants LLP as external auditor of the Company for the 2025 financial year (voting item)

This agenda item proposes to the general meeting of shareholders to appoint Ernst & Young Accountants LLP as the external auditor of the Company for the 2025 financial year.

According to mandatory external auditor rotation under the Audit Regulation (EU) No. 537/2014, our current external auditor, Deloitte Accountants B.V., can no longer be re-appointed beyond the 2024 financial year. In order to allow sufficient opportunity for proper handover by Deloitte to the company's next external auditor, the Board has initiated the selection and appointment process in 2023 and is now proposing the appointment of the next auditor for the 2025 financial year, so that Deloitte and the next auditor have sufficient time to work together to ensure a seamless transition.

Our audit committee of the Board has therefore initiated an extensive tender process for the appointment of the external auditor. The audit committee started the tender process in April 2023 and in order to carry out the selection procedure as efficiently as possible, the audit committee established a selection committee (the "Selection Committee"), consisting of two voting members, i.e., the chairperson of the audit committee and the chairperson of the Board (also a member of the audit committee). At the start of the tender process, a number of selection criteria were defined, including: the quality of the audit team and organization (i.e., understanding of life sciences industry, technical acumen, depth of experience, US knowledge on the audit team), the audit approach and integrated team (including integrated team set-up and coverage of Dutch, Belgium and US expertise, effectiveness of audit approach and transition plan, plan for reliance of internal audit and control), the fee proposal and qualification, reputation and credentials and the commitment and technology (i.e., sufficient time commitment from team, process for assessing service quality, attention of firm leadership and additional value offered by audit tools and technology).

Based on the independence criteria, initially, Ernst & Young Accountants LLP, KPMG and BDO participated in the selection process. Following inspection of reports based on PCAOB standards, the tender process was continued with Ernst & Young Accountants LLP and KPMG.

The tender process included various meetings and deep-dive workshops with functional experts. Following a series of interviews, the participants were asked to submit their written proposals and subsequently to present themselves and their proposals to the Selection Committee in multiple presentation rounds. The Selection Committee then evaluated the participants and their proposals in accordance with the predetermined evaluation criteria. These impressions led to the Selection Committee's recommendation. The decisive factors to recommend the appointment of Ernst & Young Accountants LLP were the strong integrated audit team proposed (across Dutch, Belgium and US) and the overall quality of the proposed audit team. At an audit committee meeting held in October 2023, the Selection Committee presented Ernst & Young Accountants LLP as its preferred choice and KPMG as its runner-up. The non-executive directors of the Board decided to follow the recommendation of the audit committee and now propose to appoint Ernst & Young Accountants LLP as the external auditor for the financial year 2025.
